Notes:

Russellville Little League representative, Greg Meacham asked the court to consider contributing to the repairs to the lower baseball/softball field at the Russellville City Park so that a youth softball league can be provided to girls in the community. The Court asked Greg to present the same proposal to the City of Russellville and to then present a total cost of repairs to court at a later date.

Solid Waste Coordinator, Nathan Cockrill announced that the first Code Enforcement Board meeting will be held on August 4, 2025 at 4:00 P.M. at the Historic Courthouse.

Many citizens spoke during the Logan County Park Intent to Finance hearing including Jonathan Epley, who raised concerns about the appraisals received on the proposed property on the park, Phil Gregory, who is interested in project development costs and plans, and Rich Ewald, who showed appreciation to the court for taking steps towards providing a park facility for the community. Pat Bell, Dale Givens, Greg Meacham and Scottie Harper were also among those who had comments regarding the park. All questions and concerns were addressed by Fiscal Court.
